What is the London Living Wage?

The London Living Wage is an hourly rate of pay, calculated to give workers in London and their families enough to afford the essentials and to save.

What are the benefits of London Living Wage?

94% of accredited organisations reported benefits from their accreditation, including attracting more customers and improved staff recruitment and retention.

Many organisations already pay London Living Wage. Becoming accredited is quick and easy, and will unlock access to the full range of incentives.
